

DISCIPLESHIP

The discipleship courses are designed to personally engage new believers in how to grow in their relationship with Christ and fellow Christians, and to practice reaching others with the gospel. There are two series developed for discipleship: The 21st Century Discipleship Series, created as a devotional, and the Christian Life Series, designed to equip believers to reach their communities with the gospel and to prepare for further studies in Christian Service.

21st Century Discipleship Series

The 21st Century Discipleship Series is best used as a supplement to the Christian Life Series. Lessons can be chosen to enhance any discipleship study.

- This series consists of three books with thirteen lessons each. New believers who study one lesson per week will finish the entire course in just thirty-nine weeks.
- Each lesson is written by an experienced pastor, missionary, or Christian leader.
- All lessons are Bible-based and practical and will expose new Christians to the truths they need to know for spiritual maturity and growth.
- Every lesson provides key Scripture verses to learn and a helpful self-test so new Christians can evaluate their comprehension of the material.
- The lessons will bless new Christians with the joy and adventure of discipleship.

The 21st Century Discipleship Series may be studied individually or in a study group setting. For more information on starting a 21st Century Discipleship study group, call the School for Evangelism and Discipleship at 1-800-443-1083.
